CANTICLE: Psalm 17

R: Incline your ear to me, O Lord, and listen to my words.

Response of v. 6
Richard Lloyd

In-cline your ear to me, O Lord, and lis-ten to my words.

Hear my just cause, O Lord; consider my complaint; listen to my prayer, which comes not from lying lips. Let my vindication come forth from your presence; let your eyes behold what is right. R

Weigh my heart, examine me by night, refine me, and you will find no impurity in me. My mouth does not trespass for earthly rewards; I have heeded the words of your lips. R

My footsteps hold fast in the ways of your commandments; my feet have not stumbled in your paths. I call upon you, O God, for you will answer me; incline your ear to me, and listen to my words. R

Show me your marvellous loving-kindness, O saviour of those who take refuge at your right hand from those who rise up against them. R

Keep me as the apple of your eye; hide me under the shadow of your wings. As for me, I shall see your face in righteousness; when I awake and beyond your likeness, I shall be satisfied. R
