Improvements: (Report 4)

Work is going forward on the Kitchens and Toilets and to build an Accessible Toilet in the old Traidcraft Store. Outside, there is work on the tower; a shallow ramp will be built to the Parish Office door; and there will be improvements to the car park at the east end of the church. Repairs will also be made to the church bells.

The Church Rooms have been handed over to the main contractors, Theobald's Ltd. of Gravesend, and the Link door has been locked. This is essential for security and safety reasons. For a time, the only church toilet facilities will be those opposite the Church Office and those in the Youth Centre. However, as work on the Toilets is completed, we shall be given access to them. Inevitably, there will be digging and disruption in and around the Church Rooms, and some disturbance of the car parking arrangements. You have our assurance that we shall do our best to keep all these effects to a minimum, and keep you informed. Ernest Yeo. Churchwarden.

The next lunchtime organ recital will feature Benjamin Sheen (music scholar from Eton College) on Tuesday 19th July at 1.00pm. Program includes music by Bach, Shumann and Liszt. Tea & Coffee will be served from 12.15pm. Retiring Collection.

The altar flowers today are donated by Don & Rhoda in memory of their beloved daughter Helen Kirkland.

Many thanks from Brenda, Michael, Simon and Rachel for your prayers and good wishes following the death of Michael's mother. You have been a great support to us.

Sunday coffee will be served in the youth centre while the building work is being carried out.

Maureen apologises, but none of the crockery and cutlery is available at the moment as it is all locked away while the building work is in progress.

The Children's Society - Dates for your diary, Saturday 23rd July, Garden Fete at St. Marks Church (you will be receiving a lucky envelope soon!) Friday 7th October, Cheese & Wine Party at St. Augustine's.

Since the very sad death of Bobbie, I am looking for another BPC representative for The Children's Society, not to be Secretary, just to attend maybe 4 committee meetings a year and to help out at fund raising events. Please give me a call and I can give you some more details. Anita 0208 464 0880.

Men's Group - Meet on Wednesday 13th July for 8pm at the Warren police sports ground in Coney Hall for social evening & planning meeting. Paul Frankland (01689 831032).

Help – Closure of the Rooms and loss of Saturday coffee sales means that the Traidcraft Stall could be left with a lot of short dated stock. Please could you help by buying from the stall on Sundays (particularly biscuits and Geobars). Thank you, Margaret.

Monday July 11th at 8pm at Church, (outside if weather permits) Home Group Eucharist led by the Palace Estate Home Group All welcome to join us .
