

Let our merry organs go, Benedicamus Domino (carol)

Easter sees the beginning of the Bank Holiday Season. Bank Holidays were the brain-child of local MP Sir John Lubbock and were designed 'to alleviate stress in the working class'.

Tom Corns will give our first organ recital on Easter Monday 17th April and his programme will include 'Et Resurrexit' by Leighton, recently recorded, and music by Bach. We look forward to an interesting and stimulating concert.

Please note a few changes from previous years. The recital will run from 11.30am to 12.30pm and there will be a fixed entry price of £5.00 to include coffee/tea and biscuits, from 11.00am. We hope this will be a more convenient time, leaving the afternoon free for sport, shopping, sleeping or whatever alleviates your stress!

The next Bank Holiday recital is on 1st May and will be given by Christopher Gray from Truro Cathedral

THE UNLOCK LONDON WALK NO.23

SATURDAY 29th APRIL 2006 9AM TO 5PM

north greenwich - charlton - blackheath - lewisham

UNLOCKING WHO? WHAT? WHERE? WHEN?

HOW? WHY?

Anyone in cities who wants to share or explore their Christian faith and tell their story, particularly those who feel excluded by traditional approaches to learning about faith. Real life stories of urban people, the Good News of the Down to Earth Christ, life changing skills and confidence. For the last 30 years, Now, and into the future. Anywhere where people struggle to engage with faith exploration but with a particular concern for those who live in Britain's Urban heartlands. By training, resourcing, and employing workers, in cities, who use Unlock's methods to help others explore their faith in their own way in their own place.

Because Jesus said 'You will know the truth and the truth will set you free.' And, 'I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.'

DON'T FORGET: The route can be walked in either direction. You can begin anywhere on the route. Start at any time after 9am at any church check point. Get your map stamped at each checkpoint. Don't drop litter. Be a positive witness. Look for things to pray about as you walk. Do the quiz - sheets available on the day. Take time to learn about the churches you visit and about Unlock. ALWAYS use pedestrian crossings.
