

Meet a monk or nun in York

A new Christian project has been launched in York to explain the history and contemporary ministry of religious communities.

Monks, nuns, friars and sisters from Anglican and Roman Catholic monasteries and convents will hold monthly 'encounter days' at the medieval Priory Church of the Holy Trinity on York's Micklegate.

Details: www.thisisyork.co.uk/york/insideout/attractions/holy_trinity_micklegate.html

Premier now nationwide

Premier Christian Radio station has been allocated a channel on the free-to-air digital service Freeview. This means that Premier will soon be available in homes nationwide. Anyone with a Freeview set-top box, or an integrated digital television (IDTV) will soon be able to receive the service through a television set. The station hopes to begin broadcasting on Freeview as early as September.

Co-op to share books with Africa

The Co-op is aiming to help educate children in South Africa by inviting its customers to donate unwanted children's books. The books, boxed and handed in at Co-op stores throughout the country, will be given to schools and libraries in South Africa.

Two houses available for weekly rent
this Summer
in beautiful
Upper Dordogne

Reasonable rent

Call Gloria Toplis
020 8658 0498

Bank Holiday Monday
Lunchtime Recital
Bromley Parish Church
30th August at 1 pm

Richard Pinel
of Magdalen College
Oxford

