

The Key Questions.....
Sophie Williams.

How old are you?

8 years old

Where do you live?

Murray Avenue, Bromley

Do other members of your family attend BPC?

Yes my mum & two younger sisters

What is your occupation?

School girl

Do you have any particular hobbies and interests? Reading, designing & making hama bead pictures and singing.

What are your musical tastes?

Dance music

Which radio station do you listen to?

Heart FM, or whatever mummy is listening to in the car.

What are your favourite television programmes? Home & Away, Family Affairs, Tracy Beaker, Smart, Koala Brothers and Fireman Sam.

Which famous living person would you like to meet and why?

The Queen, as she is important.

How long have you been worshipping at BPC? Seven and a half years

Do you have a special role at BPC?

I take part in Junior Sunday School

Which other churches have you worshipped at? St. Mark's Church in Bromley

What did you think of Bromley Parish Church when you first attended?

My first memory is of painting our hands & sticking them all over a picture

Is there any one aspect of the parish or worship do you particularly like or enjoy at BPC? Sunday School, and singing the hymns

Is there any part of BPC that you feel could be seriously improved on?

Tidy up the graves in the garden, as some of them are covered up.

Is there anything special that you think our church should do for other people?

Visit more people who aren't able to get to church.

If you could do anything you wanted in church, is there anything you would like to do differently from how we do it now? I wish Junior Sunday school was as long as infants and we made more things.

Is there anything you think we do really well in our church?

Sunday School teaching

Do you think the Church should speak out on things happening in the world or just religious matters? Only a few times about the world, as there are some bad things happening, though their sins are being forgiven all the time by Jesus.

Do you have a favourite prayer?

The Lord's prayer.