

Spiritual CPR - reviving a Flat-lined Generation*By Todd Phillips £7.99 ISBN 0781 442036

Many books explain 'how' to share your faith, while others tell 'what' to share – but few books explore the 'why'. Todd Phillips shares the compelling reasons why you should share your faith and makes the case for the inescapable connection between those who share their faith and those who experience joy. This book will encourage you to review the way you see evangelism, and change your heart toward non-believers, forever.

100 Simple Bible Craft Ideas for Childrenby Sue Price £6.99 ISBN 0854 767924

Many of us learn more effectively when we have something to see and something to do. Crafts can therefore be a vital part of any session with children – not just an add-on. So here is an ideal resource for those who don't regard themselves as experts! There are story crafts, lesson reminder crafts, worship crafts, crafts to give away, and seasonal crafts. Great fun!

100 Proven Ways to Transform Your Communityby Steve Chalke with Anthony Walkis £4.99 ISBN 18429 11198

These exciting community transformation ideas are from 100 successful projects around the UK. They will inspire, inform and motivate others to do the same in their own communities. Covers such social issues as drugs, homelessness, debt, recycling.

Management: a biblical approachBy Myron Rush £7.99 ISBN 0781 437458

Here is a refreshing and helpful approach to management. Drawing on timeless principles from the Bible, the author presents a lively and practical guide for any manager who aspires to greater effectiveness and productivity. Each chapter concludes with practical applications designed to help integrate principles into daily practice. Chapters include: a biblical philosophy of management, team spirit, how to delegate, time management and communications.

Jesus: a novelBy Walter Wangerin £14.99 ISBN: 0 7459 5202 X

Walter Wangerin's much-acclaimed retelling of the Bible as a novel, The Book of God, has sold over 1.5 million copies worldwide. He now turns his attention to the life of Jesus Christ in this gripping novel. The story starts with the young Jesus attending Passover in Jerusalem, where his mother tells him about the extraordinary events surrounding his birth.

The focus then moves to Jesus' ministry - his miracles, preaching and parables - and his interaction with a wide range of people before he starts the journey to Jerusalem for his final Passover, culminating in his crucifixion and resurrection. Faithful to the gospel accounts and expertly retold, this is an engrossing read for all intrigued by the person of Jesus.

101 Amazing Things About Godby Marsha Marks £2.99 ISBN 1589 199804

"Is there really a God?" Marsha Marks considers the awesome and astounding attributes of God in everyday life. She combines Scripture verses with quotes and reflective meditations.