

MARTIN LUTHER KING junior

Martin Luther King, Junior was born on January 15, 1929 in Atlanta Georgia, USA. ML, as he was called, grew up to be a church minister, just like his grandfather and father.

Dr King believed that peaceful mass action could bring about change and his life was dedicated to fighting for civil rights. His home was bombed, he was arrested several times, but he continued to fight, saying 'We must learn to meet hate with love'.

In 1963, 200,000 people gathered to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the Emancipation Proclamation. It was a peaceful protest and Dr. King gave his famous 'I have a dream' speech.

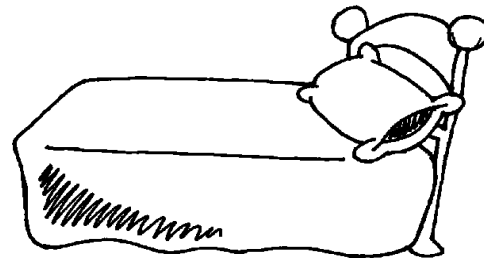

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was shot and killed on April 4 1968, assassinated at the age of only 39.
