

Garvin's Gourmet Guide to Unlikely Eating Places
No 4 of 6

Name: Community House

Place: South Street. Opposite the Fire Station

Open: Weekdays 10 'till 3pm

Details: Staffed mainly by volunteers. I was warmly welcomed into a medium size room with a 'Café' style layout. A choice of good hot meals and snacks were available and presented well. As I sat at a small round table I found the staff were most obliging!

Today's Choice: With a cup of tea, of course, I chose a corned beef salad, which included about a dozen beautifully freshly prepared vegetables and a choice of numerous dressings. It was delicious. (£3)

My 5 Star award is for:

Being able to eat an excellent meal in a small and nicely decorated 'sun drenched' courtyard adjoining the Café, in the centre of Bromley. Summertime!

Graces for all occasions

This is the fifth in a series on different graces. Please contribute any graces that you especially like. They can be handed to me in Church, left in the pigeonhole in the office, e-mailed or telephoned (details on back page). Thank you to Simon Jarvis for the first of the two below.

Heavenly father, keep us alive, there's ten for dinner and food for five.

We bless thee Lord for this our food,
For life and health and every good,
May we, more blest than we deserve,
Live less for self and more to serve,
