Amazing Grace

by Steve Turner £8.99 ISBN 0 7459 5178 3

Acclaimed music writer, Steve Turner, traces the life of 'Amazing Grace' and the man behind it. The song has been recorded by artists as varied as Elvis Presley, Ladysmith Black Mambazo, Johnny Cash, Rod Stewart, Judy Collins and Destiny's Child.

The book begins with the dramatic story of John Newton, from his childhood, his life at sea, his participation in the African slave trade through to his writing of 'Amazing Grace' and his campaigning against slavery.

The second part of the book - picking up the thread in the years immediately following Newton's death - tells the story of the song itself as it has spread and developed over the past two centuries and its recordings by many famous artists from a wide variety of musical backgrounds.

Cliff Richard: the biography

by Steve Turner £7.99 ISBN 0 7459 5175 9

'What is so good about this book is that none of the gossip is too touchy to dwell on. Although this is an authorised biography, all the innuendos are confronted head on. There are a lot of fine anecdotes. Turner's sympathetic, sagacious and highly enjoyable book tells you everything you ever wanted to know about Cliff.'
