

The Key Questions.....
Bobbie Bourn*How old are you?

64

Where do you live?

Between Bromley and Shortlands (at the bottom of the hill!)

Do other members of your family attend BPC?

No

What is your occupation?

I worked in Lloyds Bank Computer centre, as Operator and latterly as a Librarian, for 29 years. I have had various part-time jobs since (ie. Dillons Bookshops, IRG in Beckenham, BHS and for the last three and a half years at Churchill Insurance.) I am planning to "retire" finally at the end of June.

Do you have any particular hobbies and interests?

I enjoy doing crosswords, reading, music (especially opera) and going to the theatre.

What are your musical tastes?

Mainly classical (I even like Wagner!) but I also like some Jazz and Rock (Quo & Queen)

Which radio station do you listen to?

Classic FM

What are your favourite television programmes?

Good well acted /produced dramas, historical documentaries – but not soaps.

Which famous living person would you like to meet and why?

Alan Titchmarsh because I'm sure he could get me even more motivated to "get out there" and work on my garden, instead of letting other people do it for me, so that I can just enjoy it.

How long have you been worshipping at BPC?

For about 24 years (since 1980)

Do you have a specific role at BPC?

Various "odd job" roles, Sidesman, Lay assistant, Welcomer, Traidcraft treasurer and Children's Society representative with Anita.

Which other churches have worshipped at?

St. Mary's, Ealing (when Michael Saward was vicar) when I lived in London. I also visited various famous churches on Sundays the most interesting of which was at the Tower of London, where you were allowed through the gate if you said you were going to the chapel.

What were 'first impressions' when you began attending BPC?

Not very welcoming at all, in fact I stopped coming for about 6 months, but missed it so much I returned. I never thought of going to another church.

Is there any one aspect of the parish or worship do you particularly find attractive at BPC?
