Book of Donors

Bromley Parish Church has been fortunate in receiving many gifts in recent years, both monetary and fabric. When the Church was rebuilt after the war, the gifts given were recorded in the Book of Donors. This has not been updated for many years.

The PCC feel that it is appropriate that when gifts are given or money is spent for a specific project, that this should be recorded. Therefore we are trying to update the Book of Donors. Unfortunately the last entry is 1957!

If you know anyone who has given a specific gift to the Church and does not mind this being recorded, please let either Ernest or me know so that their name and gift can be added. Ron White has taken on the task of searching through the archives to find any entries.
