

The Baptist dog

A strong Baptist family decided to buy a home and make everything in the house Baptist. They were going to make it look and feel Baptist through and through. So when they were finished, they went to a dog home to look for a Baptist dog.

The owner of the dog home thought about it for a while and then nodded. "Yes... yes, I think we have a dog that will fit your description." So the dog was brought out to the family.

The father said, "Let's test this." He said to the dog, "Go get a Bible."

And the dog ran over to a table, grabbed a Bible in its mouth, ran back to the man and plopped the book at his feet. Impressed, the father continued, "Let's see if this dog knows its books of the Bible... Turn to Psalm 23". The dog then opened the Bible with its nose and pawed through the pages to Psalm 23.

"Okay," said the father. "That's great. But what are your views on baptism by immersion?" The dog thought for a moment, and then went out and jumped in the duck pond.

Very pleased, the father and family fished the dog out of the pond, dried him off, and took him home. The next day, the family showed their friends the Baptist dog and the things it could do. Finally, the friends asked, "Well, can it do any other tricks that normal dogs do?"

The Baptist father wondered and said, "Hmm, I don't know. I've never tried." He then ordered the dog, "Heel."

Suddenly the dog leaped onto the father's lap and placed its paw on the man's head and started to pray. "Wait a minute!" exclaimed the mother, outraged. "This dog isn't Baptist! It's Pentecostal!"
