

The Key Questions.....

Enid Knight

How old are you?

As old as my tongue and a little bit older than my teeth. That's what my Mum would have said. Actually I'm 62.

Where do you live?

Shortlands. Right at the bottom of that walloping great hill.

Do other members of your family attend BPC?

Yes, David, my husband. Although our son (ex-choir member) lives in Ireland and our daughter (ex-bell ringer) lives in America, they both regard BPC as their home church and like to keep up with all the news.

What is your occupation?

I am a retired nurse. I now work part-time as a hospital chaplain.

Do you have any particular hobbies and interests?

Reading - almost anything. Drawing. Having a go at various arty-crafty things. Not always successfully but I enjoy it.

What are your musical tastes?

Mainly classical - all sorts. I have to confess to being a closest Sinatra fan and Placido Domingo can sing to me anytime.

Which radio station do you listen to?

Classic FM though I do flick through the stations when I am doing the ironing. I often just turn it off and enjoy the quiet.

What are your favourite television programmes?

I enjoy drama, some documentaries, who-dun-its and I really enjoy the comedy series 'Surgical Spirits'. Having worked in an operating theatre I recognise the characters.

Which famous living person would you like to meet and why?

The Prime Minister, just so I could tell him how he should be running the country.

How long have you been worshipping at BPC?

48 years

Do you have a specific role at BPC?

I am a Reader

Which other churches have worshipped at?

Other than visiting other churches when on holiday, BPC has always been 'our' church.

What were 'first impressions' when you began attending BPC?

I was 14 when we moved to Bromley so it was the Guide Company run by May Powell assisted by Pat Powell that was my first experience of BPC closely followed by joining the Youth Group. They were both lively and friendly and brought me into the church.

Is there any one aspect of the parish or worship do you particularly find attractive at BPC?

The music and the dignity of the worship (most of the time).
