I have a dream

that someone has been so inspired by the Make Poverty History campaign that they really want to work towards it by offering to help on the Traidcraft Stall on a regular basis. We have been one member down since the death of our dear friend Bobbie. We hold the stall on Saturday mornings from 10.15 am to 12.30 pm. Apart from its considerable contribution to fairer trade, it is a valuable part of the Coffee Morning, which is the one regular event where the general public come into our Church buildings.

The Stall adds interest to the welcome given by the coffee team, and bears witness to our concern for God's world. We also hold the Stall on Sunday mornings after the main service' which Margaret can usually manage, although if she is away there are several children bemoaning the lack of chocolate biscuits.

Speak to Margaret Elves, Alan Hughes or Alec Thompson if you are interested. Or ask more about it at the
