

September Music

*Craftsman's art and music's measure,
For thy pleasure all combine (F. Pott – hymn)*

September brings the first of our Celebrity Evening Concerts. On Saturday 9th at 7.30pm Rachel Gough (violin) and Rupert Gough (organ) will present music for this unusual combination. The Gough Duo was formed in 1997 and as the only regular violin and organ duo in Britain, their performances have aroused much interest. Rupert is Assistant Organist of Wells Cathedral, and both he and Rachel are tutors at Wells Cathedral School as well as following busy solo careers. It should be a stimulating evening. Programmes £8.00 at the door or in advance from the Church Office.

On 19th September our lunchtime series continues with a recital for oboe by Helen Scarborough. She recently studied at the Guildhall School of Music and the Royal College of Music, winning prizes for solo and chamber music. She has played with many London orchestras and is a Junior Fellow at the RCM. We look forward to hearing her in a varied and interesting programme. Refreshments from 12.15pm. Retiring collection.

Smile International

Sarah Newman will be spending 5 months in Uganda, working with 5-11 year old children for Smile International, as part of her gap year; she leaves for Kampala this October.

"Smile" is a Christian Organisation, which focuses on supporting Christian work in several countries where there is great need. It provides missionary opportunities for students taking a gap year. Sarah is currently fundraising (she needs to raise £3,000) If you would like to support her in this venture, please call Sarah on 0208 658 3947 or speak to Anita on 0208 464 0880.
