

BROMLEY PARISH CHURCH

Concert Series Annual Report – 2017

2017 has seen an interesting and varied selection of recitals, both on Saturday mornings and on Bank Holidays.

The series of Saturday recitals started with a very good concert given by the pupils of Langley Park School for Boys. They impressed the audience with a high standard of music making, as did the pupils from Whitgift School, Croydon who performed for us in May.

We had two organ recitals in February and September. The former was given by Ralf Ayling-Miller, the organist at St Mark's Church, Bromley. The second was given by Anthony Daly.

There were two vocal recitals during the year. In April, the Bromley Boy Singers made a return visit, and in November we enjoyed the vocal duo of Valerie Murray and Marilyn Bigham, accompanied by Frank Roddy.

The four Bank Holiday organ recitals again proved very popular, and were well attended.

- In April we had Travis Baker from St Mary's Church, Bromley
- May saw visits from Tim Harper (Ripon Cathedral) and Daniel Moulton (Head of Organ Studies at the Royal Birmingham Conservatoire)
- On the August Bank Holiday David Holbourn visited from Lyon

We have another interesting and varied series in the diary for 2018!
